A note from Rev. Clinton...

Autumn...

“...be glad and rejoice in the Lord your God;
For He has given the autumn rains for your vindication...
The threshing floors shall be full of grain,
The vats shall overflow with wine and oil.”
(Joel 2:23-24)

Dear Friends,

On a damp, cool morning the other day I caught the old, familiar scent of autumn—even before the leaves began to fall! The rich earthiness of it brought home many memories:

- playing in the leaf pile Dad had laboriously raked up...
- watching yellow and red Maple leaves floating silently down Crum Creek...
- walking home from school with a girl (!) on a windy afternoon, wondering what Mom had made for supper...

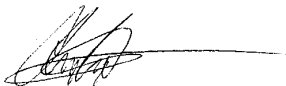

Old, familiar memories... Years later, it is more the emotions evoked by them that is really remembered: feelings of family joys; of being happy and warm as days grew colder; the anticipation of coming home.

In autumn, the prophet bids us “be glad and rejoice in the Lord your God.” It is harvest time; the gentle rains are falling; the fruits of the earth are being gathered in. My prayer is that you too will pause long enough in this mad career called life to look, listen, breathe and see the glories of this gently-falling season. The geese are gathering; their quickening song fills the skies above you with rejoicing. In the midst of your trouble, sorrow and care, you can still choose to be glad in the Lord. For, like a leaf drawn gently down time’s current, He will surely carry you beyond them.

“In heaven it is always autumn,” wrote John Donne. “His mercies are ever in their maturity.”

May all blessed memories matured over many years fill you this autumn with joy and peace in believing. May the glorious colors of God’s abundant provision surround your days with beauty and uphold you in mercy and grace!

With joy,

17	Listening to the Groans

31	Discovering Community - Reformation Sunday

Learning is a part of our mission as servants of God. At Knox, we know the profound strength that is ours through the study of God's word.

This Fall, there is an opportunity once again to join with others in fellowship and study. 'Transforming Discipleship', our annual Church Wide Study, will help with significant questions, offer guiding answers, and contribute to meaningful relationships.

How do we understand our mission of service to God? What inspires our faith? What sustains us in all times?

It all starts October 3 on World Communion Sunday! Make time to learn and grow with Knox.

Crown Ministries is dedicated to helping people manager their $$ and resources according to God's principles. The Bible has over 2,000 verses about managing your money, but how does that translate into practical advice? Crown has developed a 7-step "money map to financial freedom." The practical goal is to be debt free and have adequate savings for retirement. We may not all reach that point, but we can start working in that direction. I will cover each step in upcoming columns.

Destination number 1 actually has 2 parts: Save $1000 for emergencies.

Start using a spending plan or a "budget"

Cars break down, fridges need to be replaced. Keeping an emergency fund helps contain the biggest enemy to financial freedom: more debt! I will talk more about the spending plan next time. You can find the Crown Money Map and budget forms on the crown.org website. For more information contact Scott Elliott at sellott@wideopenwest.com or 630-357-4784.

CHURCH NEWS

PRAYER TEAM NEWS

Did you know your team of Knox members prays for you every Wednesday night in the chapel? We pray for those with health concerns, those in the hospital, many who are home recovering, those over 50 who are seeking jobs, our pastors and staff, missionaries, those studying to be pastors, the church programs, and for the whole world! We know God hears our prayers and answers them because healing takes place, jobs are found, and our church continues to grow and thrive. We can't fix the whole world, but we do our part. We are also available in the Chapel after services on Sundays if you would like someone to pray with you for your special concerns. If you would like to join this ministry or know more about it, please call Betty Hemmeter at (630) 357-8223. Other team members are Jerry Engstrom, Linda Gerner, Diane Heintz, Robin Kolar, Karol Priddy and Hal Spinka.

CONGRATULATIONS TO BETH BURNER

It is with great pleasure that the CDO board announces the appointment of Beth Burner to the position of Director of Knox's Children's Day Out Program. Beth, a Knox member, has been very active in children's ministries and was the Assistant Director of CDO. For over four months Beth served as Acting Director while a search was made for a new Director. Beth impressed the staff and board with her abilities, energy and strength in completing the tasks of both the Director and Assistant Director positions. She has earned the respect of the programs teachers and acceptance by its parents. We are very pleased that Beth has accepted the position and look forward to the program growing even stronger under her direction.

PRESBYTERIAN CAMPS UPDATE

In April of this year the Presbytery of Chicago (POC) entered into a contract to sell Presbyterian Camps in Saugatuck, Michigan to Lakeshore Christian Camping (LCC) for the sum of $8.6 million. The sale was necessitated by the POC's settlement of a lawsuit out of court, paid for with a bridge loan from a bank of $11 million due on August 31, 2010.

LCC has sought pledges of financial support in its bid to purchase the Camps. Its mission is to preserve intact the unique character of the environmentally-threatened duneland property while maintaining and increasing its Christian camping and spiritual/educational ministries. To this end, Knox voted unanimously at its August 8 Congregational Meeting to pledge $250,000 to LCC in the form of funds, labor and materials over the next 5 years to build two new cabins to LCC's specifications.

In mid-August, LCC informed the POC it was unable to meet the financial requirements of its contract. The contract was thus rescinded. LCC, which has received more than 1.3 million dollars in pledges and gifts to date, continues to seek a way to purchase Presbyterian Camps.

The POC is currently paying interest only on its debt to the bank at the amount of $2,000 per day. It cannot afford to delay any further its settlement of this $11million debt.

At this time a provisional contract has been signed to sell the Camps to a partnership group that is offering to lease the majority of the property back to the POC for ongoing use as a camp. The sale would enable the POC to meet about $9.5M of its $11M debt obligation. This provisional contract, approved by POC's Council on September 14, will be put to a vote at the POC's October 12 Assembly Meeting. Details of the lease are currently being negotiated.

Please pray for the future of Presbyterian Camps. If you have questions, please speak with Rev. Clint or a member of Knox's Session. Eric Heinekamp, who serves as the POC's Director of Financial Affairs, and Janet F. Hyde of LCC's Board of Directors are both members of Knox. They are also available to answer your questions.

CASH MANAGEMENT UPDATE

We are pleased to report that we are on target with respect to our 2010 budget year-to-date through September 19, 2010. Knox has continued to demonstrate its commitment to our programs and missions, with nearly $1.1 million in receipts thus far which has allowed us to fully fund our activities. As we look back at our success to date and forward to the conclusion of this, our Jubilee year, we are thankful for the extravagant generosity of our congregation. It is your generosity that allows our Church to grow and increase our service to God & His people.
